approving the report of the corpora-tion counsel on the charges which were filed against the assistant su-perintendent by George C. Smith, representing a colored citizens' asso-ciation. It reads: "The board of education after con-sideration of the opinion by the cor-poration counsel in the case of Ros-coe C. Bruce, assistant superintendent of schools, rendered under date of June 21, 1919, hereby announces their satisfaction with this opinion so far as the charges of moral turpitude are as the charges of moral turpitude are concerned. The board finds no ground for any such charges as have thus far been brought against Mr. Bruce."

Announces Intention. The second resolution reads as fol-

"Europe asserts today that Isaiah's prophesy is not an exaggeration of history. The coming of the American people with banners and bands, with machine guns and ambulances. with munitions and money, has been the cause of such joy as this old world has not often known. If Amerrepresent the Colored Parents' League, he told the board that the colored people of the District are determined to have Bruce removed.

Several times Mr. Hamilton called the speaker to a halt to inform him that he was not stating correctly the acts of the school board in the Bruce case.

Mr. Peyton sought to have the board set a date for the beginning of the inquiry, but failed. Prof. Henry B. Learned, who offered the motion for an inquiry, said he did not want to see a specified date set. He said he wanted to see the board act promptly, but with deliberation.

Calls Facilities Inadequate.

Residents of Benning made written complaint to the board that school facilities in that suburb are inadequate for the needs.

Resolutions also were received from the lost of the prophecy and promise of deliverence, security, peace and joy?

The American spirit is essentially altruistic. Partisan politicians may assure us in pyrotechnic eloquence that this is idealism run mad—a gyroscopic-like invention of dizzy-headed men to give a false impression of sure-footedness; but in such assertions they only make their ignorance appallingly apparent.

Washington was the first but not the last of American altruists. He looked forward to a future not unlike that which Isaiah predicted. Washington saw the day and was glad when American altruism should come to its own in world dominion.

"The happiness of the people of these states," he said in his farewell address, "under the auspices of liberty may be made complete by so careful a preservation and so prudent a use of this blessing as will acquire the prophety of recommending the total prompted the prophety and the prophety altruistic Partisan politicians may assure us in pyrotechnic eloquence that this is idealism run mad—a gyroscopic-like invention of dizzy-headed men to give a false impression of sure-footedness; but in such assertions they only make their ignorance appallingly apparent.
